

Mountaineers To Play Nevada City Here On Sunday

Chalk Up First Victory Over Placerville Saturday

The Truckee-Tahoe Mountaineers broke into the win column in the Placer Nevada Baseball League series Saturday night by out-playing the Placerville team 12 to 9 behind the steady chucking of Frank Giovannoni.

The team, after a humiliating defeat the Sunday previous at Colfax, played steady and hard, being good both on the defensive as well as getting 11 hits off two Placerville twirlers. Giovannoni held the home team to 10 hits, and aside from the first inning when he was hit for a triple, single and home run for four runs, pitched a whale of a game.

Truckee opened the first inning with three runs, went behind in the second 5 to 3, but tied the score in the third. In the fourth the Mountaineers scored five runs and never again were behind.

Christie, who earned the nickname of "Rubber Arm" with his sensational performance at first, hit what should have been a home run but in his haste to get to the plate, failed to touch third base as he rounded the corner and was called out. The same hit, however, brought in three of the Truckee runs.

Art Williams pasted a homer in the seventh with one on.

Wentz, Placerville second baseman, led in hitting with three for four, while for Truckee Baxter and Williams tied for hitting honors, each getting three for five. Bill Curran, outfielder, was hit in the wrist by a pitched ball, breaking a bone in the joint. He will be benched for several weeks with the injury.

The local team praised the fine diamond, well lighted park and the sportsmanlike attitude of players and fans.

Next Sunday afternoon the Nevada City team comes to Truckee to meet the local team in what promises to be a good contest, since both clubs are still on the bottom of the percentage ladder.

Winter Returns As Snow Falls June 6

Believe it or not, two inches of snow fell in Truckee on June 6th.

Following a month of ideal summer weather, a storm developed in the Pacific northwest, spread over the plateau areas and brushed the Sierra. Gardens and flowers which were fast developing under the summer sun, drooped and wilted as the temperature in this district dropped below the freezing point.

Local Couples In Car Accident Are Recovering Here

Two motor vehicle accidents were reported by the California Highway Patrol during the past week.

In the first, Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Little and Mr. and Mrs. John Rau, all of Truckee, were hurt when the Little car, returning from the baseball game at Placerville, crashed into a power pole near the McIver turn just west of town.

Little, local justice of the peace, was driving the car and State Patrolman William Gautsche said he dozed at the wheel momentarily. The car left the road and struck the pole. Little suffered a bad cut on his mouth and nose and Mrs. Little has deep cuts and bruises on her forehead. The injuries will confine them to their homes this week, Dr. L. D. Nelson said.

The Rauses, riding in the rear seat, escaped serious injuries, although Mrs. Rau has broken ribs. The new car was badly damaged.

Cyclist Hurt
Donald D. Lewis, 18, a soldier from the San Francisco Presidio, suffered a badly injured elbow Sunday afternoon when the motorcycle he was riding left the road at Hirschdale and was wrecked. He was taken to the Veterans Hospital at Reno by the Truckee ambulance. Patrolman Gautsche investigated.

MAIN STREET HAS NEW FEATURES, JOBS ARE DONE

Work has been completed on the entrance to Cabona's Store and the building now boasts one of the most modern and attractive fronts. The work was done by Contractor J. R. Wolert and the recessed doors, with large plate glass display windows, tile flooring and modernistic canopy add greatly to the main street.

Another local improvement has been made at the California Cafe where a new sidewalk has been installed along the front and side of the structure. This work was also done by Wolert.

OES Will Welcome State Grand Matron

Truckee Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, held their meeting Tuesday evening, June 6, at which a new member was initiated. Past Grand Matron of Utah, Mrs. W. Waters, visited and gave an inspiring talk. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall following the meeting.

Power Company, Utility District In Bid For Contract

Trustees Studying Plans For Power Supply At School

Trustees of the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District are expected to reach a decision within the next few days on whether the Truckee Public Utility District or the Sierra Pacific Power Company will supply electric energy for the new high school plant.

Directors of the utility district have presented a plan to the school district to supply electricity with an ultimate major saving to the school district, although the latter is being asked to advance $4500 to make the installation possible.

The Sierra Pacific Power Company has offered to serve the school at a flat rate of 2 cents per KWH. The utility district has made a similar offer, but with a rate reduction from 2 cents to 1 1/2 cents per KWH if the amount used exceeds 10,000 KWH per month. There will also be a 10 per cent discount on the bills after the advance of $4500 has been repaid. E. L. Loynd, president of the utility district board pointed out.

The $4500 to be advanced by the school for installation costs would be paid back by the district at the rate of 50 per cent of the monthly bill until the full amount is repaid.

The principal objection to the utility district's plan was the basis upon which a minimum charge would be made. At first, the district offered a minimum of $150 monthly but when it was pointed out that this would likely be excessive, the directors agreed upon a minimum to be the average of the billing for the first six months each year. Since these months would require more power for lighting than the last six months, Directors Loynd and C. R. Heller agreed to make the minimum on a basis of the average month during the first year.

Since the school plant is to be located within the confines of the utility district, it is the desire of the directors to do everything possible to make the service available, Loynd said.

W. A. Loynd, president of the school board, said it was the purpose of the board to secure power adequate for the school at the lowest possible rate and agreed that if this service can be delivered by the utility district at a cost equal to that offered by the power company, he felt sure the trustees would agree upon a contract with the utility district.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

This week 20 high and 25 elementary school pupils will graduate at impressive ceremonies marking the end of the first year of progress under the unified school system. None can dispute the fact that the year has been marked with considerable success and certainly a great step in advancement over other school terms. There have been individual incidents which were unfortunate but for the most part had no connection whatever with school activities. While these incidents are regrettable, our local situations are not isolated instances. They occur, often in a more pronounced way, in other schools, in all communities. Here there are problems which must be solved, errors which should be corrected but, taking an over all look at our schools, we are well impressed with the program as scheduled and conducted. The fact that there was only one withdrawal from an enrollment of nearly 100 high school students during the entire year stands as mute evidence of satisfaction. We are naturally looking forward to future improvements but as this year ends we extend to the governing board, faculties and students our sincere congratulations for a task well begun.

WAY CLEARED TO START ON NEW HOSPITAL

C. R. Heller, president of the Tahoe Forest Hospital District, this week was in receipt of a letter from T. L. Chamberlain, attorney for the district, advising the local board that the way has been paved for securing a clear title on the site for the hospital at Gateway Park. The easement held by the Western Union has been waived, the letter indicated, and this was the last step in getting a clear title as required by the state and federal government agencies cooperating.

LOCAL CHAMBER WILL ELECT AT MEET TONIGHT

At the Truckee Chamber of Commerce meeting tonight at 7:30, election of officers for the next year will be held, with several other items of civic importance on the agenda.

The Dog Derby Association will make its final report on the 1950 races. More information will be available on the disposition of the Truckee emergency airfield. Lee Nisbet will report on the progress of the Nevada County Chamber of Commerce.

Secretary Winifred Kamp says that it is important that all members and others interested attend the session in the organization's office tonight.

Unique Ball Game Slated Here July 9

The next bye for the Truckee-Tahoe Mountaineers of the Placer Nevada baseball league will be on July 9 and already plans are being made for a feature game in which the Old Timers will be pitted against the team, Business Manager R. N. Little said.

New Dance Platform Built at Donner Lake

Lee Nisbet announces that the Armstrong Realty Company and the Donner Lake Development Company this week are completing the installation of a 40 by 60 foot outdoor dance platform at the west end of the lake, near the beach, which will be used by the public. It is hoped to have the opening of the new addition ready for the first dance on June 17.

Grass is also being planted and within a short time, Nisbet said, a softball field with flood lights will be still another attraction.

Murder Suspects Nabbed Here To Face Trial Soon

Shasta Lawyers Refuse To Handle Defense Of Youths

Robert Sturm, 19, Orland, and James McKay, 18, Sacramento, are under a first degree murder indictment returned by the Shasta County grand jury last Thursday at Redding and the court appointed William Lally and Clarence H. Pease, Sacramento Ruppert Crittenden and Kennedy Jackson, both of Oakland, attorneys selected by the California state bar association, to represent the pair.

Sturm and McKay are accused of the brutal slaying of Under Sheriff Earl Sholes and Deputy Sheriff Daniel Heyford, both of Redding, on May 25 when the officers were returning the pair to a California Youth Authority Camp near Redding after they escaped and went to Seattle.

The two youths were arrested just east of Truckee by State Patrolmen William Gautsche and George Schrom after the former spotted the pair hitchhiking from an abandoned car answering the description of the one in which the Shasta officers were killed.

Gautsche was called to Redding last week to testify before the grand jury.

Judge Alfred F. Ross of Shasta County announced a continuance of the arraignment when none of the Shasta County lawyers would take the case because of their relations with the slain officers. Judge Ross asked the state bar association to assign attorneys to the case.

In the meantime the accused slayers are being held in separate cells at Redding following their removal from Folsom where they were taken after being held in the Truckee jail.

Both are still maintaining a calm and unemotional attitude, which they displayed here immediately following their capture.

STANFORD MIXUP IS HALTED AS S.P. DROPS STATION

There is now only one Stanford in California.

As a result, Stanford University freight and students' trunks shipped from the east will not land in the future, as they have occasionally in the past, at a freight station on the Southern Pacific line between Sacramento and Reno.

Stanford officials—the ones at the university and not at the freight station—were advised recently by the Southern Pacific Company that Stanford, the freight station in Placer County, between Truckee and Norden, is being abandoned.

Henceforth, the railroad officials say, the university should have no further problems with a rival Stanford as a freight destination.

Truckee Women Feted At Birthday Party

Mrs. Michael Harris and Mrs. Ray Guymer were the fete guests at a dual birthday party given by Mr. and Mrs. James Lyons Saturday evening, May 27. A buffet supper preceded the cutting of the cakes and presenting of gifts to the women. Canasta was the diversion of the evening.

Others present included Ray Guymer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Mayer, Mesdames Helen Knapp, William Schull, William Campbell, L. Farrar, Oscar Schumacher, Misses May Fisher, Shirley and Suellen Guymer, Ellen Lyons and Stanley Jones.

Tahoe Boosters Schedule Vital Meeting June 15

The first and probably the most important meeting of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association for 1950 will be held at Camp Richardson Thursday, June 15, at a noon luncheon, Mrs. H. F. Droste, acting secretary of the association, announces.

The meeting is called primarily for the purpose of reorganization and making plans for the summer advertising campaign. George Kehlet, a director and one of the leaders in the organization, said considerable work is necessary if the association is to continue to serve the lake area and he urges that all members as well as others interested in the continued development of the lake attend the session.

"The organization must be kept functioning if we are to go ahead," Kehlet said. "Our work in the past has been good. The association has brought thousands of people to Lake Tahoe annually, but we cannot stand on past performances. We are faced with new problems every year and they must be met and handled as they come up."

"If you wish the work of the association to continue, everyone must get behind and support it. It means the future of the lake," he added.

Reservations may be made for the luncheon by writing or by calling Camp Richardson.

Brown Lead As Wilson, Hooper Win In Primary

Charrison Has Lead For Peace Justice Job At North Lake

On the basis of unofficial returns from Tuesday's primary election balloting, Truckee, Lake Tahoe and Donner Summit followed the rest of the state in state and national choices for officials. Despite the cold, snowy day, 467 voters turned out in Truckee, 279 at Tahoe City, 292 at Kings Beach and 59 at Soda Springs.

Foster Wilson, deputy sheriff here, was elected as justice of the peace to succeed R. N. Little, who was not a candidate, over Mrs. Ethel T. Buell, the count in the Truckee and Summit area being 315 for Wilson and 196 for Mrs. Buell.

At Kings Beach, the incumbent justice, Clarke Allen, was unseated by Harry Charrison, a quarantine station inspector, by a count of 162 to 130. There was no contest at Tahoe City where incumbent Justice C. W. Vernon polled 237 votes.

Also unopposed were Constables Dick Lavery at Kings Beach, Harry Johnson at Tahoe City and N. F. Dolley at Truckee, all of whom received a large complimentary vote.

Douglas Barrett and B. W. Reynolds were elected on the Republican County Central Committee here with Frank Titus and C. Edmunds being write ins for the Democratic committee. Barrett received 127 votes, Reynolds 71. At Kings Beach, Mrs. Alice Sorensen received 207 votes as a Democratic Central Committeeman. Jerrold Seawell, unopposed for the board of equalization, polled a heavy vote throughout the district.

Hoskins Trailing

Incumbent Sheriff Richard W. Hoskins was trailing Wayne Brown by 90 votes, the count being Hoskins 3466, Brown 3556, with 267 absentee ballots to count. No definite announcement can be made until the supervisors canvass these votes.

Coroner Alvah Hooper was apparently returned to office over his opponent Paul Bergemann, the final count being 3475 for Hooper and 3186 for Bergemann.

All other Nevada County officers went in unopposed, the only change being William Tamblin who replaces P. G. Scadden as county assessor. Scadden was not a candidate.

Placer County

In Placer County, William Flam, Roseville police chief, was leading incumbent Sheriff E. J. Kennison 3699 to 3607, in a close race to be decided at the general election. Al B. Broyer was leading incumbent Clarence Tindall for the district attorney post 6881 to 5059, while for superintendent of schools, Albert V. Bequette was ahead of his only rival, A. W. Ray, 6218 to 5454.

It pays to be careful! Many strangers are in our midst and, although we dislike the thought of not trusting our fellow man, those who cannot establish a satisfactory identity should never be allowed the run of your place. Mulford Miles gave employment to one of these rovers and in a very short time found himself short all cash register receipts and his means of transportation. Through the cooperation of highway patrol officials and Sheriff Kenison of Auburn, the Miles car was located in Palo Alto last Monday night. No money was recovered. Miles operates a service station at the foot of Brockway Hill.

Ambros Furer, operator of the Mont Blanc restaurant and bar, also located at the foot of Brockway Hill, was also penalized for taking in a stranger who allegedly absconded with Ambros' Chrysler and the total cash register receipts. Due to the good work of Constable Dick Lavery, with the help of Nevada officers, the suspect was apprehended at the airport in Reno, with a ticket for Sacramento. Ambros got back about half the missing cash.

Constable Lavery urges that everyone screen carefully those persons not too well known before taking any of them into your employ or into your home. It is the duty of the wayfarer to equip himself with references and identification that will bear investigation. It is our duty to protect our homes, businesses and personal welfare.

Camy Althoff honored her mother and father, Florence and Mulford Miles, with a lovely dinner served out of doors to members of the family and very close friends on their 25th wedding anniversary, May 31. Those enjoying this party were Helen and Clare Walters, Ike and Granny Miles, Ione and Bill Wiseman, the honorees, their son David, Camy and Bill Althoff and son, Curtis. Gifts were graciously received by the honorees.

Carpenters Local Union 2035, is holding a big party at Ta-Neva-Ho Saturday night, June 10 with a buffet supper being served from 7 to 10. Dancing will follow dinner and entertainment.

Ole Man Winter plays a return engagement! Election days are often blustery, as was called to my attention by Mrs. Belcher who dragged out her winter coat for that trip to the polls, but seldom like this June 6 with snow falling throughout the day. In spite of the storm, 292 of the 423 registered voters in this area turned out to express their desires.

BOY MEETS GIRL—NOW AS THEN—Wanda Jones and Roy Jacobs play the familiar old roles of "boy meets girl" in the Cavalcade which is to be staged by the California Centennials Commission as part of the Shasta Centennial celebration at Redding June 11-18. Dedication of Shasta Dam and dedication of the old town of Shasta as a State Park are other features of the celebration.

Old Dwellings Usually Need Plan Changes

A fully satisfactory job of remodeling an old house often entails major floor plan changes because old dwellings ordinarily have small living rooms, inadequate closet and storage space, and poor kitchen arrangements.

Partitions between rooms should be inspected to determine which ones could be removed without difficulty and which ones are bearing walls helping support the weight of the house. A first story wall usually is a bearing wall if it is directly underneath a wall on the second floor.

Removal of a bearing wall is more expensive than taking out a simple partition. A steel beam to support the weight usually must be installed. If an opening such as a large doorway or an archway is cut in a bearing wall, the load can be held up by a beam resting on posts at the sides of the opening.

Frequently, the most inexpensive way to enhance the appearance of the exterior of a house is to use color. A home can be painted in such a way that the best features are emphasized while attention is detracted from less pleasing parts.

If the roof line is ungraceful, the trim along the edge of the roof should be painted an inconspicuous color, and dark asphalt shingles should be selected for reroofing. To draw attention to an attractive roof line, pick brighter asphalt shingles. By drawing the eye upward, a light colored roof also will make a house seem taller.

If the proportions of a house are pleasing, its outline can be accentuated by painting the trim in strong contrast to the sidewalls.

Crystal Bay Residents Seek Sanitary District

Residents of Crystal Bay, Lake Tahoe, have petitioned the Washoe County board of commissioners for creation of a Crystal Bay sanitation district. The proposal was turned over to the office of the county engineer for study.

Commissioners reveal the project would call for detailed planning in the matter of boundaries, with almost a house-to-house survey necessary. A meeting of the property owners concerned is planned for later.

BOARD & ROOM

Board and Room $6 to $8 Week In Local Hotel Back in Early Days

by DOUG BARRETT
In that envelope Mrs. Hazel Lewis gave me a couple of weeks ago, with several notes and cards of Truckee before the turn of the century, the bulk seemed to relate of Constable James Reed. To have a frame on which to hang the story of these miscellaneous papers, I inquired into the life of Reed from several of my Hot Stove Historian friends and came up with some interesting sidelights.

James Reed was, in the memory of my informants, a big man, somewhat on the order of our incumbent constable, N. F. (Tom) Dolley. A bachelor, he was particularly fond of hunting, fishing and the children of the community. He lived over on Riverside Drive, near where Phil Jolley now has his studio.

Herald's Business Directory for 1877 lists James Reed as a carpenter and builder. This indicates he was elected constable in 1878, already holding the office in 1880, the date of the earliest of the papers at hand.

Duel of the Constables
It seems that in the 1880's Truckee had two constables, both duly elected. One served during the day and the other at night. Serving at the same time as Reed was "Jake" Teeters. A quarrel developed between the two, the cause long since forgotten. At any rate, Teeters and Reed met one night in the Capitol and shot it out. When the smoke cleared, Teeters was dead. Reed stayed on here for awhile but in the early 1890's he too passed away but that duel is still fresh in the memories of several old timers about town.

The papers Mrs. Lewis gave me turned up an organization which I never knew existed. It was the Order of Caucasians and in 1880 Reed received a receipt from Frank Wilson, financial secretary of Camp 74. Two Nevada County school poll tax receipts, $2 each, for 1888 and 1891, are among the papers.

Several letters and telegrams are also included dealing with Reed's duties as an officer—notices, mainly, to arrest wanted men and to be on the lookout for missing horses.

Reasonable Living
Especially interesting to me were two business cards. One advertised the American Hotel, Front St., Truckee. Standing where the Riverside now commands the east end of the block, it was operated by Stewart McKay. Board per week was $5 and board and room could be had for $6 to $8, depending upon the room. Individual meals were 25 cents each and lodging by the night ran from 25 to 50 cents.

The other card advertised "The Sierra", run by J. B. and Frank Meloche, dealers in "fine wines and liquors, imported and domestic cigars." This emporium, I am told, was located on the corner where the California now stands.

Two items not covered by the above were an orange cardboard "chit", "Good for one drink" at Summers & Cohn, and a receipt dated 1890, from E. J. Baldwin to James Reed for $1.90 for 150 pounds of ice from July 18 to August 26.

2ND ST. ADDRESS IN CAPITAL IS HISTORIC SPOT

Motorists who drive through Sacramento and haven't to pass close to 1015 Second Street between J and K Streets are according to the National Automobile Club, on historic ground for it was at this spot that the western terminus of the famed Pony Express was located.

Although to most of us the Pony Express is little more than a romantic episode in our history it was at the time of its operation a fairly successful solution to a pressing problem. The problem at the time was to establish a link of communication between the eastern United States and the flourishing and boisterous communities on the western coast and various solutions were tried. For a while an official mail steamer had ploughed up from Panama to arrive in San Francisco once a month. Then the Butterfield Stages had started to carry mail across the prairies by way of the Southern Route and had lumbered their way through from the east in some 20 or 24 days. Finally in April of 1860, W. H. Russell of the firm of Russell, Majors and Waddell, started the Pony Express.

Russell got his new service under way by establishing stations about every 25 miles along the route from St. Joseph in Missouri to Sacramento in California, by acquiring a sufficient number of sturdy ponies and by hiring riders. And what riders they were! Recruited from the toughest and bravest of western men, they would ride through snow and violent storms and could hold their own in any company. Each rider would span three stations and would usually average close to ten miles per hour in doing so and the mail would come through from St. Joseph in just ten days, with a rider arriving twice each week.

For more than a year the Pony Express maintained the link of communication between Missouri and California. But in November 1861, when the overland telegraph was completed, the job was finished, the riders scattered and went their own ways, the stations fell into decay and another colorful phase in the pageant of American history had come to a close.

AID TO CHILDREN NEARLY DOUBLE DURING PAST YEAR

Aid was provided for 214 needy children in Nevada County during April, 1950, compared with 118 for April, 1949, California Taxpayers' Association reports.

Included in the April, 1950, figure were 212 children in family groups and two in boarding homes and institutions.

Aid for the needy children in the county reached $11,501 for April, 1950, compared with $5302 for April last year. Of the total aid during April this year, $2939 came through the federal treasury, $5738 through the state and $2744 from the county. In addition, the county provided $80 in aid in kind.

Tahoe State Parks Have Limit for Campers

The state division of beaches and parks has released information on the camping limits to be established for the summer season in the more popular of the California state park system.

These limits are annually established, limiting the period for which any one camper may occupy tent or trailer space. This is to enable a greater number of persons to enjoy the attractive features and facilities of the parks involved.

A 15 day limit has been placed on both Tahoe Campgrounds State Park near Tahoe City and

D. L. Bliss State Park on the southwest shore of Lake Tahoe. The limitation on both extends from June 1 to September 15.

Turquoise has been mined near Santa Fe, New Mexico, for centuries.

CONGRESS ROSTER HAS VARIETY OF OCCUPATIONS

by REP. CLAIR ENGLE
WASHINGTON— The Library of Congress has compiled a list of occupations and professions of members of the 81st Congress which reads pretty much like a service club roster in most any town and reveals that the legislators represent a real cross-section of America.

SUMMER THEATRE GROUP PLANS SEASON AT TAHOE

KINGS BEACH—A full professional theatre company with guest stars will open its first season at Lake Tahoe July 3. Playhouse in the Sky, Inc., the summer stock company, is to be located at Brockway on the north end of Lake Tahoe.

Set up as a non-profit organization serving the cultural and entertainment needs of the community, Playhouse in the Sky, Inc., in its first season of operation, will present an eight week program of Broadway hits. Negotiations are now in process to obtain popular Hollywood and Broadway stars to appear in some of the productions. They will include some of the best known and finest actors who appear yearly on the east coast summer stock circuit.

Playhouse in the Sky, Inc., is guided by an advisory board made up of residents and business people at the north end of Lake Tahoe. They are currently accepting patrons and sponsors for the summer theatre. Anyone interested in becoming a sponsor of Playhouse in the Sky, Inc., is invited to make inquiries at Brockway, Calif.; 555 Sutter St., San Francisco; or 206 N. Virginia St., Reno.

Byron Griffith, well known director and producer, is managing director. Recently serving in a similar capacity with Hollywood's Key Theatre, Griffith has appeared in many Broadway shows as well as directing for the New York Drama Guild. In association with him is Leslie Abbott, formerly of the theatre staff, Shriners University, England, director of the Stockton Community Theatre, and for the past year an off-Broadway director in New York.

In addition to the professional resident company and stars, Playhouse operates a theatre school under professional direction with classes in acting technique, fencing, speech and dance.

RECREATION FOR BUSINESS

Mrs. Brown's first graders are studying the stores in Truckee. They are thinking of recreation to bring business to Truckee and its stores. Some of the sports they thought of are swimming, fishing, boating and hunting.

YEAR BOOK

—by Sharon Pace
Last Friday the Year Book was passed out. The 7th and 8th grades made about 50 copies. Some of the things in it were the introduction; class flower, the gardenia; class colors, blue and gold; class motto, "Onward to Success"; biographies of the graduating class of 1950; class will and prophecy; best all around characteristics. The Year Book was very successful. There were many other things beside what I have written.

HOW TO DO IT
Double Door for Corner
 When kitchen cabinets form a right angle in a corner of the room, the shelf space at the corner ordinarily is obstructed by an upright post to which doors are hinged. The construction detail shown here, as taken from American Builder magazine, eliminates the post and enables the corner space to be used conveniently. The double-hinged door opens fully, exposing the entire shelf area. Structural support is provided by horizontal braces under the shelves and the counter top.

BABY IT'S COLD INSIDE—Technicians at the Naval Ordnance Laboratory, White Oak, Maryland, test a Naval mine at a temperature of 70 degrees below zero in the new Navy all weather chamber. Temperatures ranging from 200 degrees above zero to 100 degrees below can be created within this room designed to test naval ordnance within all of the temperature ranges on or above the earth's surface.

OLD OAKEN BUCKET EXERCISES SWARMER STYLE—A far cry from the famous water dispenser of early musical fame is this modern field water purifying plant being operated by Private First Class Hughe M. Ayers of Tapoko, N. C., and Private First Class Charles J. Williams of Prince George, Va. This useful gadget needs only to be plugged into the nearest stream or pond and a plentiful supply of pure drinking water is assured. The unit pictured here is supplying water for the 15th Infantry Regiment who are part of the "Aggressor" force in EXERCISE SWARMER.

Skill in Using Wood Veneers Centuries Old

The basic skill of wood veneering, a process now considered indispensable in construction of fine furniture for American homes, is 35 centuries old.

Wood veneers were used by the ancient Egyptians. Perfectly preserved specimens of wood veneer furniture have been found in the tombs of Egyptian Pharaohs.

The technique of veneering was advanced by early Babylonians and Assyrians. Roman craftsmen continued the use of veneers extensively for doors and wall panels.

Quarrel Over Tables
 Pliny, "the Elder," Roman naturalist, wrote that wood veneer tables frequently led to domestic quarrels. He said that when Roman husbands complained about their wives' extravagance in buying jewelry the wives often retorted by reproaching the husbands for purchasing costly tables. Until the 18th century, veneer furniture was a luxury that could be afforded by only the richest persons. Wood veneers were expensive and few craftsmen were sufficiently skilled to use them. Veneering was considered one of the fine arts.

Today as in historic times, veneers are prized for their combination of beauty and strength.

More attractively figured woods often can be obtained if a log is cut into thin sheets of veneer instead of being sawed into thick lumber. A veneer log can be opened in any one of a number of ways, depending upon the visual effect desired.

Stronger Than Steel

Many distinctive veneers come from sections of a tree from which it is impractical to saw solid boards. These sections include the stump, the crotch where the trunk begins to fork into branches, and burls, deformed growths on the side of the tree.

Many of the world's most beautiful woods are so delicate that they can be used commercially only as veneer facing on hardwood plywood. When fabricated into plywood, the wood becomes durable and fully resistant to splitting and warping.

Strength is gained from the plywood principle of construction, in which grains of adjoining plies run at right angles to each other. Hardwood plywood is stronger than a piece of steel of the same weight.

The plies of plywood are bonded together with adhesives that are set under pressure. This produces a joint as strong as the wood itself. In fact, the affinity of the adhesive for the fibers of the wood is greater than the affinity of the fibers for each other.

MEXICAN HELD FOR FAL FIGHT NEAR DONNER

The United States Immigration Department at Los Angeles is holding Antonio Chavez after the Mexican told officers he had been in a fight near Donner Lake on September 8, 1949, in which another Mexican railroad worker, known only as Poncho, was badly beaten.

It will be recalled that Poncho was found in an unconscious condition near Donner Lake. His face had been beaten so badly that his features were not visible. He was at first believed near death but after treatment here by Dr. L. D. Nelson was rushed to a Reno hospital and subsequently recovered. Deputy Sheriff Fosten Wilson signed a John Doe warrant charging Poncho's assailant with assault with intent to murder.

Chavez, who was found hitchhiking up Donner Summit prior to the discovery of Poncho's unconscious body, explained the blood stains on his clothing and shoes by saying he had killed a porcupine to get the quills and displayed the latter as evidence.

Later, he told Los Angeles officers, he went to Idaho and then returned to Sacramento for his S.P. pay check.

He told investigators at the time of his arrest in the south that he and Poncho fought, and that the latter knifed him across the abdomen and hand. Then, he told the officers, he picked up a rock and struck Poncho in the face.

Sheriff Richard W. Hoskins is awaiting a decision by District Attorney Vernon Stoll before going south after the man.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

ESCAPING FROM THE ANGRY DAGOMBAS,
TARZAN SUDDENLY PLUNGED HEADLONG
INTO A GROUP OF SILENTLY WAITING WARRIORS.

WARRIORS SPRANG
UPON TARZAN, PINNING
HIM DOWN. "TARZAN!"
CRIED A VOICE.
"IT IS I, YOUR FRIEND,
N'KOLA! MY MASAI ...
IT IS TARZAN!"

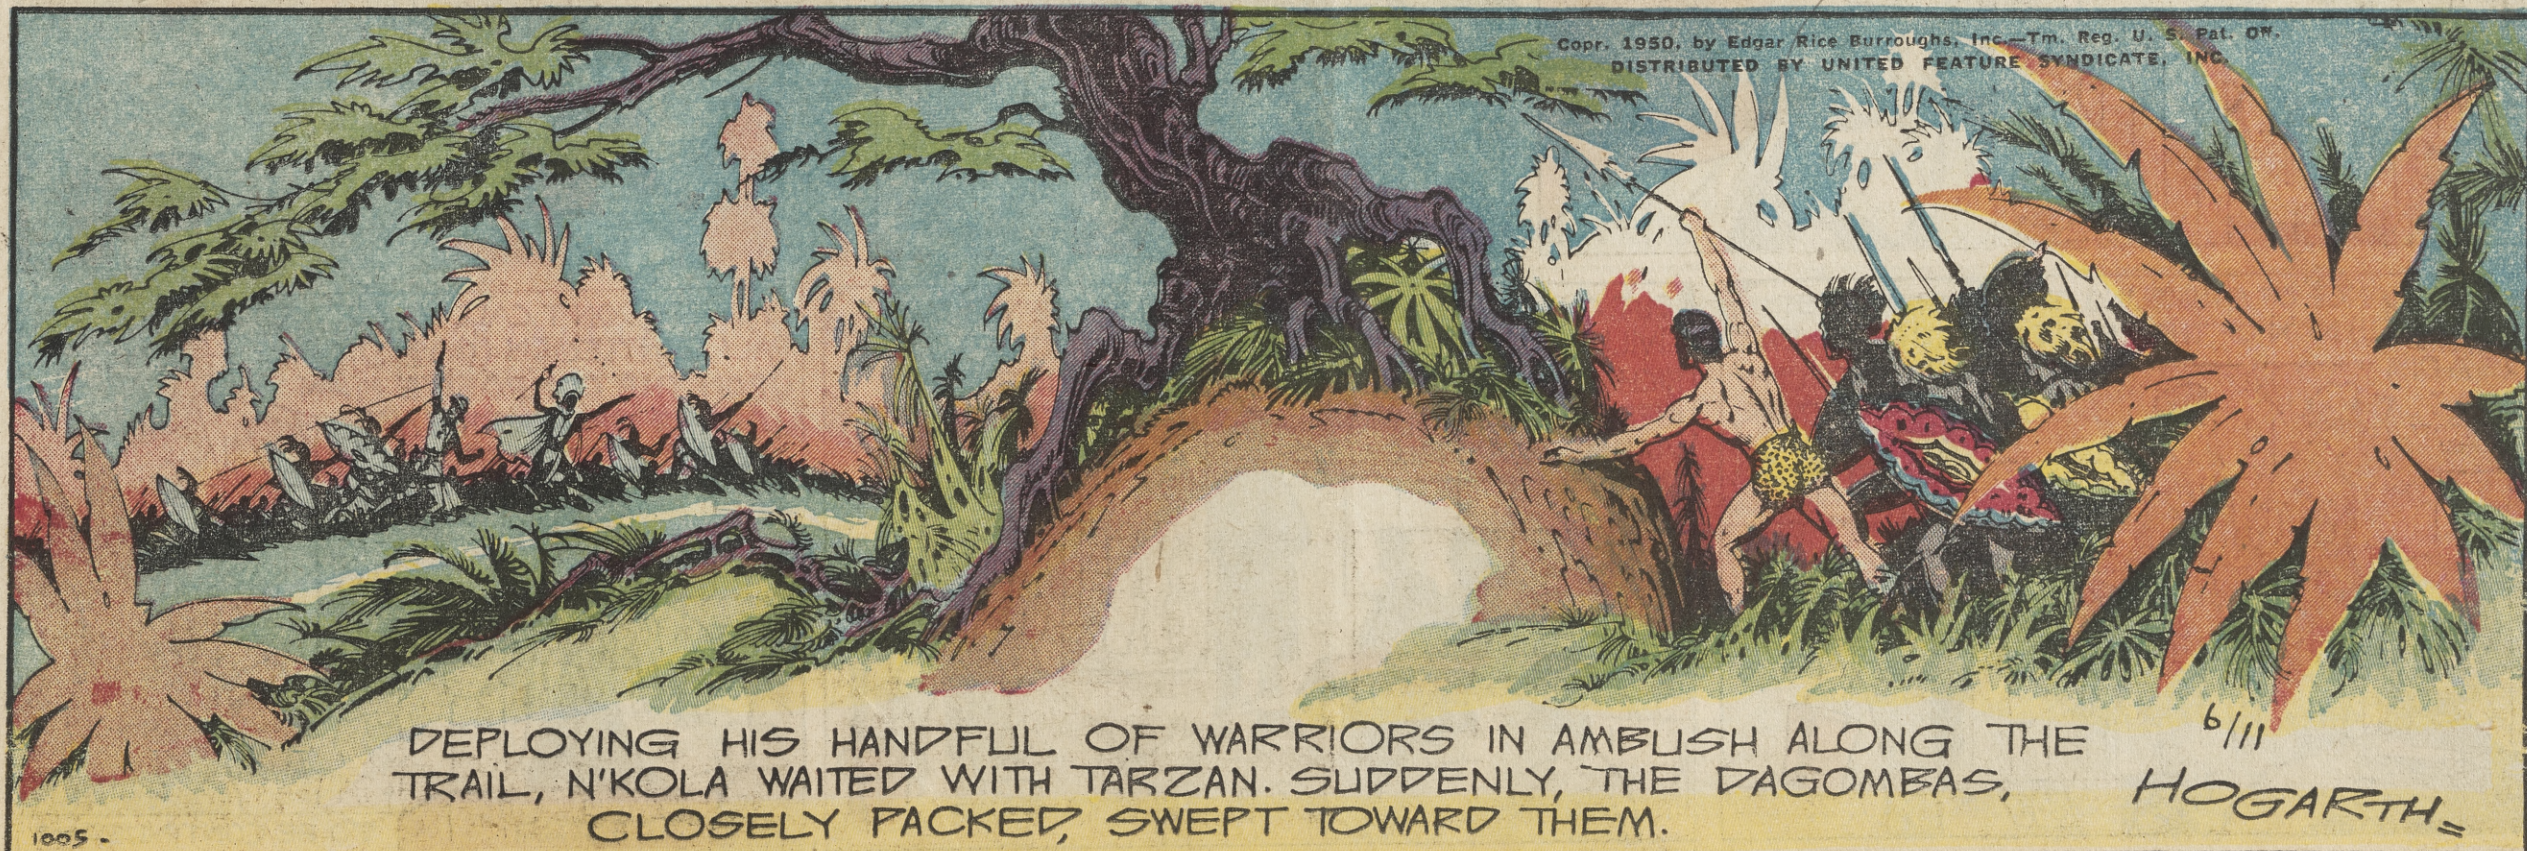

"MY SCOUTS
REPORTED
BAS HAD TURNED ON YOU," N'KOLA SAID, "AND CAME TO FIND

"A PARTY OF
DAGOMBAS IS FOLLOWING ME," TARZAN SAID...

"GET
OF SIGHT-----
WE'LL GIVE THEM
A SURPRISE!"

DEPLOYING HIS HANDFUL OF WARRIORS IN AMBUSH ALONG THE TRAIL, N'KOLA WAITED WITH TARZAN. SUDDENLY, THE DAGOMBAS, CLOSELY PACKED, SWEEPED TOWARD THEM.
